

Creative Media Makeup Technical Handbook

Creative Media Makeup

Skill for each competition	This annual cycle of competitions focuses on the role and tasks of a Creative Media Makeup Artist, designing and applying face and body art to a given theme. The creative media makeup artist will use a combination of cosmetics, paints and prosthetics combined with costume and props if desired, along with artistic skill to create their design on a chosen model. Each competition in the cycle involves competitors creating an original, creative and a technically accurate visual representation, with use of full body makeup and special effects. The creations will be supported by mood boards, demonstrating each competitor's ability to follow through from concept through to completion. creative-media-makeup-competition-overview.pdf

For all objective criteria, the following measurement will be used:

	Objective assessment will be used whenever the process or product is correct or incorrect, complete or incomplete, against a given benchmark that the judges can agree on (0/1). It is used whenever it is possible to take a measurement of some kind. For all judgement criteria, the following marking scale will be used/ or a variation: Under 30% – Does not meet industry standard Over 50% – Meets minimum industry standard Over 70% – Meets industry standard Over 85% - Exceeds industry standard A panel of judges has been selected from a range of industry, college and training provider representatives. The judges' decisions will be moderated and quality assured by WorldSkills UK.
Top Tips from judges	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Practice as many times as possible beforehand, timings are everything when it comes to competition. • Stick to your strengths, do what you're best at. • Don't over complicate your design, do what you know you can do to an excellent standard in the time given. • Don't rely on hiding shoddy work under costume, you're being marked at every stage, poor workmanship will be spotted. • Check all equipment beforehand, along with making sure you have absolutely everything you need. • Be aware of models' comfort throughout. • Research themes to the fullest. Judges want to see interesting interpretations. • Always be aware of H&S plus Hygiene rules. Covid-19 Rules must be strictly adhered to. • Enjoy the experience, don't worry about what other people are doing, concentrate on your work.
