

Building your Digital Skills

Answer each question below by circling TRUE or FALSE.

QUIZ QUESTION	TRUE	FALSE
You must have a diploma or degree to understand basic digital skills	TRUE	FALSE
An example of a digital device is an analog clock	TRUE	FALSE
One of the 6 basic digital skills is being able to transact online.	TRUE	FALSE
Using social media to communicate with friends or using an app to book your train journey is an example of using basic digital skills.	TRUE	FALSE
Having digital skills is unlikely to improve your CV.	TRUE	FALSE
If you have the right digital skills, software, and an internet connection, you could become a digital freelancer.	TRUE	FALSE
82% of jobs advertised in the UK require applicants to have some digital skills.	TRUE	FALSE
Accenture offer 9 free digital skills courses for people of any age.	TRUE	FALSE
One of the digital skills courses Accenture offer is Digital Skills for Work and Life.	TRUE	FALSE
You only need digital skills if you are going to study for a job in digital marketing.	TRUE	FALSE