

Apprenticeship Rights & Responsibilities

Print off enough copies so that students can work in pairs or small groups with one copy between them.

Answer each question by circling either True or False.

Give each group of students 3 minutes to answer their questions. Keep hold of a completed sheet so you can share the results.

Quiz question	TRUE	FALSE
As an apprentice, you need to spend 60% of your time in your job at work, and 40% of your time studying.	TRUE	FALSE
Apprentices receive recognized qualifications when they complete their apprenticeship.	TRUE	FALSE
You should apply for a student loan the moment you are awarded an apprenticeship.	TRUE	FALSE
Apprenticeship qualifications range from GCSE's to bachelor's degrees and master's degrees.	TRUE	FALSE
As an apprentice, you could earn a salary of up to 80% of the National Minimum wage.	TRUE	FALSE
Your employer must provide you with an employment contract and/or an apprenticeship agreement in order to begin your apprenticeship.	TRUE	FALSE
Apprentices are entitled to annual holidays but not sick pay.	TRUE	FALSE
Apprentices are responsible for completing their assessments, assignments, and any other training tasks.	TRUE	FALSE
Apprentices do not need a job description because someone senior will tell them what to do.	TRUE	FALSE
Apprenticeships are only available in Scotland and Wales.	TRUE	FALSE