

WorldSkills UK Assistant Training Manager – Specialist Skills

Please review these in tandem with application guidance in the Assistant Training Managing information pack.

WorldSkills Skill No. & Skill Name	Specialist Technical Skills
13. Autobody Repair	An Assistant Training Manager for the WorldSkills competition, Autobody Repair, would need a range of technical skills and knowledge, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• ability to deliver engaging and effective training sessions on all aspects of the body repair process; this includes structural and non-structural panel replacement, chassis realignment, plastic repair, bare metal finishing and PDR techniques• evaluation of individuals' progress through planned assessments and be able to deliver feedback and a training plan based on results• ability to support the Training Manager in planning, scheduling and overseeing training sessions at a world skills standard• ability to liaise with other industrial experts to seek guidance and plan relevant training towards international standards. More details are available here: WorldSkills Occupational Standards - Autobody Repair