

WorldSkills UK Assistant Training Manager – Specialist Skills

Please review these in tandem with application guidance in the Assistant Training Managing information pack.

WorldSkills Skill No. & Skill Name	Specialist Technical Skills
18. Electrical Installations	An Assistant Training Manager for the WorldSkills competition, Electrical Installations would need a range of specialist technical skills, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Recognised qualifications in Electrical Installations (e.g., NVQ Level 3 or equivalent)</li><li>• Proven experience in training, mentoring, or coaching in the electrical or vocational education sector</li><li>• Solid knowledge of basic electrical installation techniques and safety standards</li><li>• Practical experience with motor control systems and applications</li><li>• Working knowledge of Siemens LOGO! logic controllers and KNX home/building automation systems</li><li>• Strong organisational and communication skills</li><li>• Willingness to travel nationally and internationally</li><li>• Experience in curriculum design or assessment development in vocational training.</li></ul> More details are available here WSOS - Electrical Installations