

Pre-Competition Brief:

Beauty Therapist

Pre-selection competition for Beauty Therapist (Intermediate)

An in-house competition for use in selecting potential WorldSkills UK competitors to represent your organisation

Project brief: Two tasks

Competitors must demonstrate a commercially acceptable half leg wax, ankle to knee including knee.

Time: 30 minutes

Half a leg wax on both legs from ankle to knee (including knee). Spatula method must be used and gloves must be worn at all times. The model must have visible dark hairs of an appropriate length beforehand to enable judges to judge competitors effectively. Please note: the model must have an appropriate amount of hair.

Competitors must demonstrate a commercially acceptable mini manicure including file, cuticle work and a creme red polish on one hand and French on the other

Time: 30 minutes

A mini manicure on both models' hands will be carried out. The nails are to be filed, cuticle work including cuticle knife, cuticle nippers and polished. Dark red nail varnish is to be applied to the model's right hand. A French manicure effect must be achieved on the models left hand.

Waxing - 30 minutes

Tutor should observe the correct preparation, application, removal and post waxing care.

Treatment should be carried out on a model with visible hair growth to be able to observe success of hair removal.

Tutor should be aware of health and safety throughout the full treatment, student preparation, trolley and work area tidiness and student professionalism.

Manicure - 30 Minutes

Tutor should observe correct filing techniques for natural nails, correct use of cuticle tools with correct results.

Final results to be observed, checking neatness around cuticles and side walls with all 10 nails matching.
